

K-Love has a tremendous impact on the christian community of El Paso. It provides our church with targeted announcements concerning church events and of course, fills a much needed niche of christian music within our community. The loss of K-Love to an LPFM would be great. This is the only christian radio station in the area and I love the fact that the audience is worldwide.